Mayor Frank G. Jackson Issues Statement on Passing of ADAMHS Board CEO Valeria Harper

CLEVELAND – Mayor Frank G. Jackson today issued a statement on the passing of Valeria Harper, CEO of the Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board:

“I extend my deepest condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of Ms. Valeria Harper. In her 30-year tenure, most recently as chief executive officer at the Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services (ADAMHS) Board, Ms. Harper was a tireless advocate for those struggling with addiction and mental health issues. Her contributions can be felt throughout Northeast Ohio and she will be missed.”
